Message from the Assembly to the Holy Father Leo XIV

(13 October 2026)

Holy Father,

This morning, as you enter hospital, all of us gathered for the Meeting “Ten Years After Amoris laetitia: Proclaiming the Gospel with Families Today” wish to express our closeness and our affection.

We accompany you in prayer, wishing you a swift recovery, entrusting you and all those who will care for you to the Lord.

We are grateful to you for having wanted this Meeting and for encouraging us to listen to families and to the journeys of our Churches. As we continue our work, we feel your closeness and carry with us your concern for families throughout the world.

A filial embrace from the entire Assembly. We pray for you and ask for your blessing.
